2010 Senior Advisory Council Candidate Information

INCUMBENTS

Shirley Boyington

Shirley has lived in Eden Prairie for 15 years and worked at Sears in the Eden Prairie Center for 20 years. She has been very active at the Senior Center and within the Eden Prairie community. She is active with the bridge clubs and truly enjoys the trips and events we offer. She also takes time out of her busy schedule and volunteers her time for the shopping bus. Shirley states, "The Senior Advisory Council is a very significant part of our senior community. It is the work of the Council that keeps our programs and events alive. Eden Prairie should be very proud that we have so many seniors involved in community activities. My goal is to keep our center alive and strong."

Russ Hanson

Russ has served on the council for eight years with three of those as Chair. He is very active at the Senior Center as an organizer for the annual Senior Center Golf Classic. Retired from the insurance business, Russ has many interests including carpentry, fishing, golf, drawing and cartooning, and writing. He is well organized and likes to see board meetings run efficiently and to accomplish set goals. "I will serve willingly and to the best of my ability if elected," he said. "I will try to provide the best ideas to serve the seniors and to help them work closely with the Council."

Sharon Steiner

Sharon is an active Senior Advisory Council member who is currently serving as Chair. Sharon has given much of her talent to planning, promoting and carrying out events at the Senior Center. Her passion for the Senior Center shines daily as she bakes desserts or provides decorations for various events. Sharon has lived in Eden Prairie for 39 years and has worked in community education and at all grade levels of the school system. She worked as a nursing supervisor at Methodist Hospital for years and is very knowledgeable about healthcare programs and concerns of seniors.

NEW CANDIDATES

Jaqueline Smith

Jaqueline has been participating and volunteering at the Senior Center for 1.5 years. She says she would “like to take a more active role in community issues and concerns; to maximize the pleasure of Eden Prairie senior citizens”. Since retiring, she has enjoyed volunteering and participating in activities that were previously prohibited by work and travel. She has lived in Eden Prairie since 1988 and raised a son who lives in the metro area. She looks forward to the opportunity to serve on the Senior Advisory Council!

Steve Stensgaard

Steve has been a long time participant and volunteer at the Senior Center. He helps keep the gardens around the center looking great, drives the shopping bus on Mondays and joins in on activities and games on a regular basis. He would like to serve on the council to do his part in keeping the Senior Center an active and vibrant place for Eden Prairie seniors.
